ZACHARY LI NORMAN

Twelve year old Monterey Park resident Zachary Li Norman was invited by Shaolin Temple of China to experience life of the Shaolin Monks for two weeks from April 7 to 20 in 2014. He was one of the 1st place winners in Shaolin Cultural Festival Kung Fu competition (10/12/2013) who have been invited to Shaolin Temple. He won 1st place (Form: Tiger Boxing), 2nd place (Short Weapon: Broad Sword and Shield) and 3rd place (Long Weapon: Shaolin Spear) in three divisions in his age group. He has studied Kung Fu since he was 8 and his Shifu Yang Guang and Yan Liang are the 34th generation of Shaolin Monk from Shaolin Temple of Song Mountain in China.

At the Shaolin Temple, the boys (Zachary's 9 year old younger brother Perry Chen Norman also trained at Shaolin Temple, however, he had to pay the tuition for the two weeks' Shaolin Life camp training.) along with 12 other 1st place winners from all over the United States had been trained by the martial monks and they experienced the monk life inside the temple for two weeks. They were welcomed by the Shaolin Temple Abbot Shi Yongxin who praised them for their dedication to Shaolin Culture and for enhancing the tie between the US and China.

Zachary Li Norman is currently a 8th grade student at Brightwood Elementary School and plays cello for the Alhambra School District Middle School Honor Orchestra. He is a Boy Scout at Troop 329 and on September 20, 2014 IFD, he won 4 awards in scouting skills and made to number 13 of Top 50 Elite group. This is his 3rd year in the scouts and 2nd time as one of the Top 50 Elite group.
