Mrs. Jacinth (Jazz) Cisneros, Principal

The U.S. Presidential Scholars Program was established in 1964, by executive order of the President, to recognize and honor some of our nation's most distinguished graduating high school seniors. In 1979, the program was extended to recognize students who demonstrate exceptional talent in the visual, creative and performing arts. Each year, up to 141 students are named as Presidential Scholars, one of the nation's highest honors for high school students.

For the academic component of the program, students who meet the following criteria:

- are or will be U.S. citizens or Legal Permanent U.S. Residents by the application deadline (Students who were not U.S. citizens or Legal Permanent U.S. Residents on the day they took SAT or ACT exam, or who requested that The College Board or ACT not release their scores to outside entities, should contact the U.S. Presidential Scholars Program at 319-341-2PSP (319-341-2777) to ensure their scores are considered in the determination of the candidate pool.);
- graduate or receive a diploma between January and August of 2013, the current program year; and
- score exceptionally well on either the SAT of the College Board or the ACT of the American College Testing Program, based on tests taken during the two-year window that begins in September, 2010 and runs through October, 2012, (for the recognition cycle concluding in June, 2013), or be nominated by their Chief State School Officer (CSSO) based on outstanding scholarship.
