IN RECOGNITION!

May is Asian/American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) Heritage Month – a celebration of Asians and Pacific Islanders in the United States. It originated with Congress in 1977 as AAPI Heritage Week. In 1992, Congress passed a law which annually designated May as AAPI Month to recognize the accomplishments of Asian/American Pacific Islanders and to reflect on the many ways they have enriched our Nation.

IN RECOGNITION AND APPRECIATION!

Celebrating transportation through colorful posters, Metro commissioned artists to create original artworks for the “Through the Eyes of Artists” poster series. Your artwork featuring Monterey Park is the first of five in the series to be displayed on board Metro trains and buses throughout the greater Los Angeles region. Thank you for featuring the city of Monterey Park in your artistic endeavor.
